

Columbus Nova Real Estate Acquisition Group and The Real Estate Equity Fund

have acquired the principal distribution facility of Blackhawk Logistics (“Blackhawk”), a third-party logistics company based in Charleston, SC. The five-hundred thousand square foot facility, located in Hanahan, South Carolina, has half of the public rail doors in North Charleston and is strategically located near the North Charleston Container Terminal and I-526.

Blackhawk is a portfolio company of Milestone Partners LLC. With offices across the Southeast, Milestone specializes in early stage middle market debt and equity investments.

Columbus Nova wishes to thank the management of Blackhawk Logistics and Milestone Partners LLC for this successful transaction.

November 2006